

what I MISS about

The worksheet is designed for a writing activity. At the top, a banner contains the text "what I MISS about". Below this, there are four sets of curved lines, each consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line, intended for writing. At the bottom of the page, there is a large dashed outline of a person's head and shoulders. A vertical line runs down the center of the head, and a horizontal line runs across the forehead. On both the left and right sides of the head outline, there are several sets of horizontal lines for writing.

Draw a self-portrait about a place you miss.

画一幅关于你所想念的地方的自画像。

On the other side of this page, draw a self-portrait in the head and shoulders outline.

在此页的另一边，画出自画像的头与肩膀轮廓。

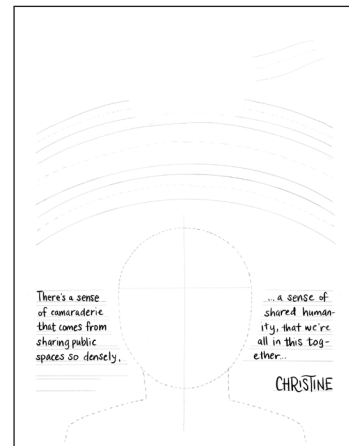

Think of a place that you miss. Write its name in the space in the banner.

回想一个你所思念的地方。在横幅的空白处写下它的名称。

Think of things you miss about that place. Write them in the arched lines in the middle of the page. Be as creative as you like with the lettering.

回想在那个地方让你怀念的事情。将它写在页面中间的拱形线上。随心所欲地发挥你的文字创意。

Write why you miss that place in the straight lines. Or, translate what you miss about the place into your native language. Then, write your name on the lowest line on the right.

在横线内写下你之所以想念那个地方的原因。或者，将你对这个地方的想念翻译成你的母语写下来。然后，在右边最底端一行写下你的名字。
