Meet the First-Gen Student Leaders

Gabrielle Medina is a 3rd-year animation major. She hopes for first-gen students to feel confident in their journeys. As hard as it may be, being first-gen should be seen as an accomplishment.

Bryan Dominguez is a 3rd-year painting and drawing major. His goal as a First-Gen Leader is to be able to help those who struggle in understanding their identity as a first-gen.

Nya Serano is a 3rd-year painting & drawing major. She wishes for all first-gen college students to be comfortable and confident in performing tasks with the support of other FG students.
