FINANCIAL ABILITY, FUNDING REQUIREMENTS and DOCUMENTATION

US federal regulations require students applying for an F-1 visa to show proof of sufficient funding for their first year of school, with expected sources of funding for the remaining years of their program. To meet this requirement, you must show proof of funding that meets or exceeds the total listed below for your CCA program. Please Note: Amounts are standard minimum amounts. Living expenses and other costs are estimates based on the 9 month academic calendar. Unless otherwise indicated - actual "other" expenses may vary. Tuition and fees, including the cost of CCA student health insurance, are subject to change on an annual basis. Full-time students at CCA are automatically enrolled in, and charged for, the CCA health insurance plan.

CCA SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Please indicate the CCA scholarship amount on the Funding Calculation Worksheet (page 4 of this form). ISS will verify any CCA scholarship award with the CCA Financial Aid.

FINANCIAL DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS

ACCEPTABLE Documentation must meet ALL requirements for Financial Verification:

- Bank statement or letter on official bank letterhead signed by a bank official, issued within the last 4 months.
- Funds must be currently deposited, liquid, and accessible in a checking, savings, or money market account. If funds are frozen for a period of time after issuance of the bank statement, funds must be unfrozen and available by the CCA program start date.
- Document issued in English. If in another language, provide both the original bank document and an English translation.
- Account holder's name must be clearly indicated.
- Currency must be clearly indicated on the bank statement or in the bank letter.
- Specific account balance must be detailed on the document. If the account holder or sponsor wishes to keep bank balance or income private, bank documents must state the account balance is "more than" a clearly specified amount.

NOT ACCEPTABLE Documentation for Financial Verification:

- Investment accounts including stocks, bonds, and mutual funds
- Proof of income such as tax returns, pay stubs, or salary verification letter; appraisal of real property such as a house or jewelry
- Available balance on a credit card
- Pensions or other retirement accounts
- Bank statements or letters indicating a balance "range" (example: "high five figures")

Source of Funding Options to Demonstrate Financial Ability:

- Personal Funds: Students can use their own funds to partially or fully support themselves. If you will use your personal funds, the bank statement must be for an account in your name.
- Sponsorship (family or other): It is common for students to have one or more sponsors (such as parents or close relatives). If someone is sponsoring all or part of the cost of your education, you must submit original bank documents with the account holder's name clearly indicated. Each sponsor is required to complete and submit a Letter of Support (page 5 of this form).
- Non-CCA Scholarships: Awards may be used as a source of funds for the Form I-20. Official award letters from any private or government scholarship board is required stating the amount of money to be given and for how many years. If you have received a CCA scholarship, note the award name and amount on "Funding Calculation" (page 4 of this form).
- Educational Loans: Official award letter required stating educational loans are fully approved.
