

DEVELOPING CONNECTIONS

Peers

Diversity of knowledge, opinions, and experiences can enrich your work and help you overcome obstacles that seem daunting.

Invite peer feedback

- Program Events
- Shops & Studios

Join a student org/study group

- Student Life
- Learning Resources

Attend campus/residential events

- Student Life Events
- Residential Education

Faculty and Staff

One-on-one interaction with faculty and staff is a great way to build your support network and gain understanding of various career fields.

Consult with instructors

- Academic Program Pages
- CCA People Directory

Seek Advising or Guidance

- Academic Advising
- Office of Student Success

Connect with program chair

- Current Chairs & Deans
- CCA People Directory

Professionals

Sharing your work publicly and attending professional events can lead to opportunities that enhance your resume and portfolio.

Network with professionals

- Career Events
- Alumni Association

Visit and organize exhibitions

- Exhibition Opportunities
- Exhibitions and Events

Use social media, responsibly

- Instagram
- LinkedIn